President's Message

According to the poet TS Eliot, "April is the cruelest month." Well, maybe for him it was, but for me the cruelest month is November. This past November, right on schedule, the weather turned cold and overcast. In vain I waited for ideas, inspiration, the germ of a concept- if not for a great painting, at least for one worth spending time on. The world outside my window became gray and chill, and my inner fountain of energy and enthusiasm also ran pretty dry. This happens to all of us from time to time, but for me it always seems to happen in November. In trying to re-ignite a spark of enthusiasm I flipped through the folders of 'painting ideas' in my computer, and sorted through the nuggets of wisdom gleaned from many inspiring teachers. One piece of advice really seemed to hit the mark.

A couple of years ago Sid and I took a workshop focusing on silverpoint from Scott Rawlins, a noted botanical illustrator. Scott is accomplished in watercolor, colored pencil, graphite, silverpoint, and several other media. And he doesn't hesitate using two or more techniques if a painting seems to require it. His comment was simple: "Do whatever it takes." Taken literally, that advice is really an invitation to play with an idea, using whatever media are at hand, and refusing to get bogged down with rules and restrictions. For the pure watercolorists among us, who refuse to use white paint or acrylics with our transparent pigments, it might be fun to forget those rules for a bit and try a technique we've never used. Maybe some collage, or an overlay of colored pencil or ink. Maybe colors we have always avoided, or a different type of paper. Or a different shape or size paper. After thinking over Scott's advice, I still haven't found my 'next best idea', but at least I'll have some fun looking for it.

As this newsletter reaches you, our Holiday Party is just a few days away. I hope you are planning to come. For newcomers, it is a wonderful place to get to know fellow artists - and enjoy the food, the prizes, and the painting exchange. For veteran members of NMWS the party marks the beginning of the holiday season each year, and is a much-anticipated event. It's potluck, so bring a dish to share and your wrapped painting. See you at one o'clock on Sunday, December 6, at the Museum!

See you at our Holiday Party!

REVISED NMWS BYLAWS - November 16, 2009

As required, we are providing each voting member with a copy of our Revised Bylaws prior to voting on these at the next General Member Meeting on January....., 2010. The enclosed copy of the revised bylaws was unanimously approved by the current Board of Directors on November 16, 2009.

The heart of our organization is the joy of watercolor which we should keep first and foremost in our minds as we do the necessary work of providing a governing structure through our bylaws.

Revised Bylaws: What's Different?

The quick answer is "not much" as far as the basic governing features of the organization go. Our primary element of a Board of Directors, Standing Committees and elected Officers is the same. But there are some changes and clarifications that were made to help the process of achieving our purpose more explicit or, in some cases, more inclusive and/or efficient.

Here are a few changes that will take effect once the revised Bylaws are approved by the membership.

1. The active membership class includes a single payment for family members in a single household.
2. Signature membership requirements are to be completed within a five-year period.
3. The structure of the Board of Directors is changed to include elected Officers (7), Satellite Chapter President(s) and Chairpersons of Standing Committees.
4. The Immediate Past President serves as an Officer and member of the Executive Committee, serving as Proxy for Chapter Presidents (s) when necessary.
5. Term limits of President are changed to allow a President to be elected to succeed himself/herself only once. All other elected officers may succeed themselves.
6. Provision for disciplinary action is included in Article VIII.

If you have any questions, please contact Nan Simpson, 899-5388.

Western Federation of Watercolor Societies

Fourty-Seven NMWS artists submitted 104 entries into the 2010 Western Fed juried competition in Salt Lake City, Utah. We should hear about the juror's (Carla O'Connor) decision in mid January. Eleven watercolor societies make up WFWS - so it's a tough competition. I wish the best of luck to our members who entered. Remember in 2011, the WFWS exhibit will be in Albuquerque. Plan to enter then and to help out - we will especially need your help in 2011.

Our WFWS committee for 2011 is seeking a volunteer who would contact New Mexico businesses and organizations soliciting contributions for awards and to cover the cost of our 2011 WFWS catalogue. If you have these skills and are willing to help - please contact Dave Cook 505-821-6705 or Woody Duncan 505-344-3613.

"Thanks to our Award Donors"

Our Fall show was a great success, and we had a near-record number of awards, thanks to several Albuquerque sponsors. We especially thank the local businesses whose generosity contributed significantly to our show. In particular, we acknowledge the following award sponsors: Artistry of Iron, El Mirasol, the RGAA, and the Pastel Society of New Mexico. We also are grateful to Melba's Flowers for the floral displays, and to Rex Barron for the fine music at our Reception.

Marie Siegrist More SC news on page 2

Happy Holidays. I can't believe Thanksgiving is behind us, it is December already! A big thank you to the Exhibition Chairperson, Penny Simpson, for arranging the Fall Show at the Rio Grande Theatre during the month of Nov. Thank you to all who participated. It is an exceptional show of .Good job. It's only Dec, but it's time to plan that special painting for the juried/judged 2010 Spring Show - a month earlier than usual. See below for preliminary details.

Meetings & Programs: The Dec Meeting is on Sun, Dec 13, 2 pm, at the Good Sam's Arts & Crafts Room in the Admin. Bldg. on Buena Vida Circle. After a brief business meeting, we'll have our annual painting exchange & holiday social. Bring a painting in an 11 x 14 mat, wrapped in plain brown paper, no ribbons or other adornment. If you do not exchange a painting, please come for the camaraderie and holiday festivities. All are invited to bring a favorite hors d'oeuvre or other dish to share. There will be a $1.00 charge per person to cover the cost of beverages. Our Jan meeting on Sun, Jan 10, 2pm, will include a presentation by Margaret Berrier, who will give us tips on writing an artist's biography. The fee will be $3 for members and $5 for nonmembers.

Paint-Outs: The Dec paint-out on Wed, Dec 16, from 9:30 am to noon, will be at Young Park located at 1905 Nevada Ave. in Las Cruces. It's a beautiful park with a lake, shade and a huge field. There's a covered area where we can set up; bathroom facilities and water is available. There will be no fee to use the park. Jan paint-out on Wed, Jan 20, from 9:30 to noon, will be at La Llorona Park off Picacho Ave. in Las Cruces. This park, along the Rio Grande, has picnic areas and restroom facilities & a walking trail if you want to venture further. There may be birds & other wildlife to paint & the river. Although the river doesn't have much water in it this time of year, still reflections and wild grasses will offer us winter beauty. A view of Picacho Peak offers another subject option. Head west on Picacho Ave., and just before you cross over the Rio Grande, turn left into a large parking lot.
