

Bio

Gayle Weisfield is fearless, fun and believes it is important to make a difference. Her moral code is to never put down another artist and never stop learning and growing. An award-winning artist, talented instructor, world traveler, and passionate student of life, Gayle is an accomplished technician in the medium of watercolor. She realizes it takes more than craft and artistic skills to produce truly inspired works of art. She works primarily with transparent watercolor in a style she describes as realistic impressionism and her direct, bold, fresh wet-n-wet watercolor style. Gayle lives and works from her restored historic Adobe near the famous San Francisco Asis Church in Ranchos de Taos, New Mexico. Gayle is a Signature Member of the New Mexico Watercolor Society, Northwest Watercolor Society, Missouri Watercolor Society, Taos Watercolor Society, and the Western Masters. Gayle now exhibits as a Western Artist in the Eiteljorg Museum's *Quest for the West*.
